January Writing Calendar

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Word Bank winter snowman snow shiver cold mitten scarf shovel sled penguin hot chocolate frozen fireplace ice skates frost	Write an acrostic poem using the word JANUARY.	Write about some goals that you have for yourself this year.	Describe how you spent your winter vacation.	Do you prefer to wear gloves or mittens in cold weather? Why?	Write a recipe for the perfect mug of hot chocolate.
	Write what you know about penguins.	Write three questions you have about penguins.	Write a story about a silly penguin.	Write down all the words you can think of that begin with J.	What would you do if school was cancelled for a week because of snow?
	Look outside the window and describe the weather you see.	Describe the clothes you would wear during a blizzard.	Use words from the word bank to write a story.	Describe snow to someone who has never seen snow before.	Write a story about a missing mitten.
	If you could meet Dr. Martin Luther King, what would you say to him?	Why do we honor Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.	Write your own "I Have a Dream" speech.	Describe a dream you have for yourself.	Write about why you think peace is important.
	What do you like most about the month of January?	What do you like least about the month of January?	Write a story about a snowball fight.	Write a paragraph telling someone how to build a snowman.	Write about the best story your teacher has read aloud this month.
	Free Choice	Directions:				