CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK!

Scholastic Book Fair!

WE'RE LEARNING!

Math:

We are officially halfway through our curriculum! While we are still very much practicing multiplication and division, we are now in Volume 2!

Writing:

We are already about halfway through building the details of our narrative. It has been fun listening to the class come up with creative ways to describe their life events.

Reading:

This is our last week on the topic of “teamwork”. After this week, we will also be transitioning to Volume 2!

Social Studies:

Not only are we reading about our last region of Native Americans, but we will start our final projects! Students will get to choose one region they really enjoyed learning about and create a book of knowledge, as well as a diorama.

Religion:

Our main focus in Social Studies this week is how we can pray for others. See “table talk” for a way to expand on this at home!

REMINDERS

Please bring in a shoebox for Social Studies!

TABLE TALK

This section is for a conversation piece you can talk about at the dinner table.

Who can you add to your daily/weekly prayer list?

How do you like to pray for others?
